

ANNOUNCEMENT – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
BROOKVINE ANNOUNCES NEW HIRE AND PROMOTION

Sydney – December 8, 2009

Brookvine, the specialist in alternative investment design, development and fund raising, is pleased to announce the appointment of an additional senior team member and the promotion of another to a senior role within the practice.

Greg Hickling has joined in the position of Director and will play a key role across the full spectrum of Brookvine’s activities. Greg joins from Citigroup where he headed the Australia/ New Zealand distribution of the Citigroup Alternative Investments Group. He has wide experience in the alternative assets universe, with particular expertise across a broad spectrum of credit, hedge fund and private markets investment strategies.

“Brookvine’s business is focused on alternative and niche specialised investment strategies” says Brookvine’s Managing Director, Steven Hall. “As the Australian market continues to evolve, we are focused on identifying and supporting a greater breadth of alternative investment strategies and we are delighted to appoint Greg to bolster our design, structuring and marketing activities across the alternative assets field” he adds.

Brookvine is also pleased to announce that Tim Peters has recently been promoted to the position of Research Manager. Tim now leads Brookvine’s research and due diligence activities, as well as playing a key role to help co-ordinate all fund raising activities.

Brookvine Pty Ltd, founded in 2001, holds a firmly established position in the Australian market, having raised over $A7.5bn to date.
