

Brookvine appoints new Marketing Director and Product Director to its growing capital raising business.

To fuel the next stage of growth for its alternative investment fundraising business, Brookvine has made two new senior appointments, bringing a wealth of experience from American Express and AMP Capital to its Sydney based executive team. Later this month, Greg Hickling, Executive Director, will depart Brookvine after 8 years of service to pursue a start-up opportunity elsewhere in the industry.

Charissa Brooks joins Brookvine as Marketing Director with over 20 years' experience in financial services marketing. Charissa will be responsible for leading Brookvine's marketing and strategic sales initiatives across channels, segments and deals.

Prior to joining Brookvine, Charissa had a career spanning 18 years at American Express. In her most recent position, Charissa was Vice President and Head of Marketing, Global Network Partnerships and was responsible for leading the marketing team of the then fastest growing division at American Express. Charissa also held a range of other senior marketing roles at American Express in Sydney, London and Singapore.

Mark Leslie joins Brookvine as a Product Director with an extensive track record in the investment management industry. Mark will be responsible for client and investor relationships specifically focusing on debt related strategies.

Mark brings a wealth of investment experience to Brookvine from his 39 year career at AMP Capital. During Mark's time at AMP Capital he held a range of senior roles across funds management, corporate client service and advice, alliance/partnership management and investment governance.

"The appointment of Charissa and Mark represents the beginning of a new and exciting period of accelerated growth for Brookvine." Steven Hall, CEO said. "To have two new executives who are so well credentialed in their fields start the year with Brookvine will help us build momentum as we continue to seek out and offer exceptional alternative investment opportunities."

"Greg has been a valued member of the deal team and an Executive Director of Brookvine. He has made a huge contribution to the success of Brookvine. On behalf of the team and Board, I would like to thank Greg for his work over many years and wish him every success in the future" Hall added.
